Date tenancy ends (the tenant must vacate by 1pm on this date)

YYYY/MM/DD

Reason for tenancy ending

I (the landlord) have entered into an agreement of purchase and sale for the residential property, and I have received a written request from the purchaser requesting I end the tenancy as part of that agreement because the purchaser or the purchaser's close family member intends to occupy the rental unit for a period of at least 12 months.

Date

- This notice may be used by a landlord to end a periodic tenancy if the landlord is selling the property and the purchaser or their close family member intends in good faith to occupy the rental unit for at least 12 months, and the landlord has received a request in writing from the purchaser that the landlord give notice to end the tenancy. This notice does not apply to mobile home site tenancies.
- This notice must be received by the tenant at least the day before the rent is due and at least three months before the tenancy is to end. For example, if the tenancy is to end on September 30 and rent is due the first of the month, this notice must be received by the tenant at least by June 30.

- A landlord must serve this notice by delivering it to their tenant personally, sending it by registered mail, or by leaving it at the tenant's address and sending it by regular mail to the tenant's address. The landlord may serve the notice by email if they have the tenant's consent in writing.
- The notice is deemed received 5 days after it is mailed. Copies of the receipts showing when it was sent and received should be kept.
- Keep a copy of this notice as well as a record of when and how it was sent and received.
- To dispute this notice, a person must file an Application for Dispute Resolution at the Residential Tenancies Office within 14 days of receiving it.
- If the tenant who receives this notice does not dispute it within 14 days, they are conclusively presumed to have accepted it, and the tenancy will end on the date set out in this notice.
- An error or an incorrect move-out date does not necessarily invalidate this notice. If the move-out date does not comply with the Residential Tenancies Act, the effective date is the earliest date that complies.
- More information is available at Yukon.ca.

Personal information is collected, used, and disclosed under the authority of section 15(a) and (c) of the Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act and the Residential Tenancies Act. Personal information will be used for the purposes of these acts and their regulations.
